It's in our hand

Mad scientist? Yes and no. Mr. Harold Green, chemistry instructor in the Marshall building, prepares to demonize a Trojan during homecoming pep rally.

Suzanne Thorton says, "We've got the spirit in our hands and in our feet." As one of the drum majors for the marching band, along with Kim Eddleton, Suzanne fires up the band during pregame activities, halftime activities, the Gold Bowl – just t name a few of the activities in which the ban participates.

August 30, 1982 marked the beginning of the end of high school for the Class of '83. The members of this class are special because they are true Cavaliers. They started their freshman year as Cavaliers and have been true Cavaliers, with spirit, since. Marshall-Walker Cavaliers have been known across the city, the state and the country as having spirit. This spirit is exemplified at athletic events, in the classroom, on television, in the cafeteria, in the band, on the cheering squad, in the auditorium and even in the nurse's office while giving blood. Cavalier spirit has set Marshall-Walker apart from other schools because wherever or whenever you see a Cavalier, you will also see that BLUE, GREEN AND WHITE. This loyal spirit is also expressed among the faculty as well as the student body.

Stick 'em up! Rifle team members Lynette Bowie, Laurie Hill, and Barbara Muse perform during homecoming activities at City Stadium.

Stepping high! With batons at their sides, tassels swinging, left hands akimbo, right knees bent, heads held high, and tummies in, Majorettes Princess Jackson, Ethel Johnson and Sheila Massenburg smile brightly as they leave the field after finishing their performance.

The Marshall-Walker High School Marching Band struts with pride.

It's in our hearts

Michele Rogers gives cheerfully as she receives support from Princess Jackson.

The blood drive sponsored by the Key Club received spontaneous response from the student body. The students seemed overwhelmed with the idea of being able to help someone else. Though anticipating pain, more than one hundred seniors came willingly to donate a pint of blood. Mr. Brooks, Key Club sponsor, also donated blood. Cavaliers have spirit in their hearts.

Arthur Kirkwood grimaces slightly as James Marshall waits patiently to donate.

Linnita Dandridge gets her blood pressure taken before she gives blood.

Bryant Patterson looks the other way as technician inserts needle.

STUDENT LIFE
CAVALIERS

Miss Junior Cavalier reaches out to catch football thrown by DECA members.

Cavaliers are fired up and ready to go! When the bell sounded to signal the opening of school for the new school year 1982-83, the Cavaliers were ready. They began the school year with new zeal and anticipation of a splendid year ahead. Much fervor was noticed in their voices, in their smiles, in their footsteps, and in their general appearance. Even though they had to walk around a ladder or bend under a scaffold, due to renovation in both buildings, spirits still soared. As the buildings received "face lifts," so did the Cavalier spirit. The Cavaliers were willing and ready to receive all that Marshall-Walker had to offer.

If this world were mine . .

Answering the question, "if this world were mine . . .", nine young ladies danced and sang their way into the talent and vocal portions of the "Miss Cavalier" pageant, which represented the culminating event of the Marshall – Walker High School Homecoming Week activities.

The contest offered several firsts during this school year. Actively campaigning for votes were two male contenders for the title of "Mr. Cavalier", Owen Charles Wilson, who was named winner, and Darryl Everett Walker. Both expressed that their reason for running was because of the honor they felt would accompany this display of support from their fellow classmates. Owen was candid enough to admit that while he cherished the honor, he felt sincerely had it been based on actual talent, the results would have been different.

Both candidates for "Mr. Cavalier" are ranked in the top 5% of the senior class. Darryl hopes to attend Virginia Tech and major in engineering, while Owen hopes to attend the University of Virginia and also pursue an engineering major.

Another significant first was the entry of a hearing – impaired student, Brenda Thomas, who used her skill in interpreting the vibrations from the music to dance. A highlight of Brenda's presentation was her response to the question, "if this world were mine . . .". With Chandra Davenport, another contestant, interpreting, Brenda said, in sign, "if this world were mine, all people would communicate." The students of M-W expressed their joy at Brenda's courage by naming her second runner-up to "Miss Cavalier".

MISS CAVALIER, YVONNE B. FLEMING AND MR. CAVALIER, OWEN WILSON

I guess I would give everyone a little love, honesty, peace, and most of all a sense of humor
– Yvonne Fleming

Kimberley Clark – First Runner-up

Named as first runner-up was Kimberly Clark, whose answer to the question, "if this world were mine . . ." was "I would rule out all poverty and provide shelter and clothing for all needy persons." Kimberly hopes to attend Virginia State University and embark eventually on a business career.

"Miss Cavalier" of 1982-1983 was Yvonne Fleming, who wooed and enraptured Marshall – Walker students with her introduction of "Jack", a doll-sized puppet, which she used in her talent presentation. Ventriloquist Yvonne indicated that she owed her success to "Jack" and the students apparently agreed with her. A member of the M-W varsity girls' basketball team, Yvonne plans to pursue a college degree.

I would rule out poverty in the world and provide food, clothing and shelter for needy persons.

– Kimberley Clark

Brenda Thomas – Second Runner-up
Everyone would communicate.

– Brenda Thomas

Myrna Richardson – Miss Congeniality
I would be a great sorceress and grant everyone one of his most desired dreams.

– Myrna Richardson

I would grant happiness to all

Another contestant who vied for "Miss Cavalier" was Felicia Brown, who, besides being a member of the Honor Society and Adapts, is also busy with church activities. Felicia brought further distinction to Marshall-Walker High School by being named "Miss Gold Bowl", a locally supported contest which culminated in her crowning at half-time activites of a Virginia Union University and Virginia State University football game. Accompanying the crown is a $1000 scholarship which Felicia plans to use to further her education.

Chandra Davenport, a contestant for "Miss Cavalier", and first runner-up to "Miss Gold Bowl", danced to the popular soundtrack "Fame". Although she did not win, Chandra felt that she did her best at what she could do. Her school activities include participation in the Honor Society, band, majorette squad, and Junior Achievement. She hopes to study law.

Myrna Richardson was another of the contestants who felt that running would provide a memorable and pleasant experience of her senior year. Also a contestant for "Miss Gold Bowl", Myrna is a member of the Honor Society, a former member of the varsity cheering squad, a staff member of the H.S. Beat news show, and the Key Club. She plans to attend college and study pre-medicine with the eventual goal of becoming a gynecologist. Myrna was designated "Miss Congeniality" by the other contestants because of her amiable nature.

Lulila Crawford, a senior who aspires to become a professional singer, belted her way to the hearts of Marshall-Walker students. A member of the Spanish Honor Society and DECA, Lulila plans to attend a local institution of higher learning.

Andrea Smith, who currently serves as President of DECA, distinguished herself as a contestant by presenting a dance routine from the '50's. A member of the majorette squad and the Key Club, Andrea plans to pursue a college education with a concentration in the field of fashion merchandising.

Completing the field of candidates for "Miss Cavalier" was Emily Fisher, a manager of the M-W varsity girls' basketball squad, and a former member of the junior varsity cheering squad. With her eye toward a business administration degree from Norfolk State University, Emily said, "if this world were mine, I would create a better standard of living for all mankind, so that each individual would be guaranteed a life of peace and prosperity."

Miss Cavalier contestants anxiously await the announcement of the winner of the pageant.

I would be magic and cast a spell all over the world so there would be no evil. There would only be love, honesty, peace, and happiness.

– Chandra Davenport

I would create a better standard of living for all mankind in that each individual would be guaranteed a life of peace filled with prosperity.

– Emily Fisher

I would bring everyone the three joys of life: love, laughter, and happiness.

– Felicia Brown

I would find a way for everyone to look into their hearts, find the love within and learn to love one another as God intends.

– Andrea Smith

I would rule out all prejudices, and stress world peace and happiness for everyone.

– Lulila Crawford

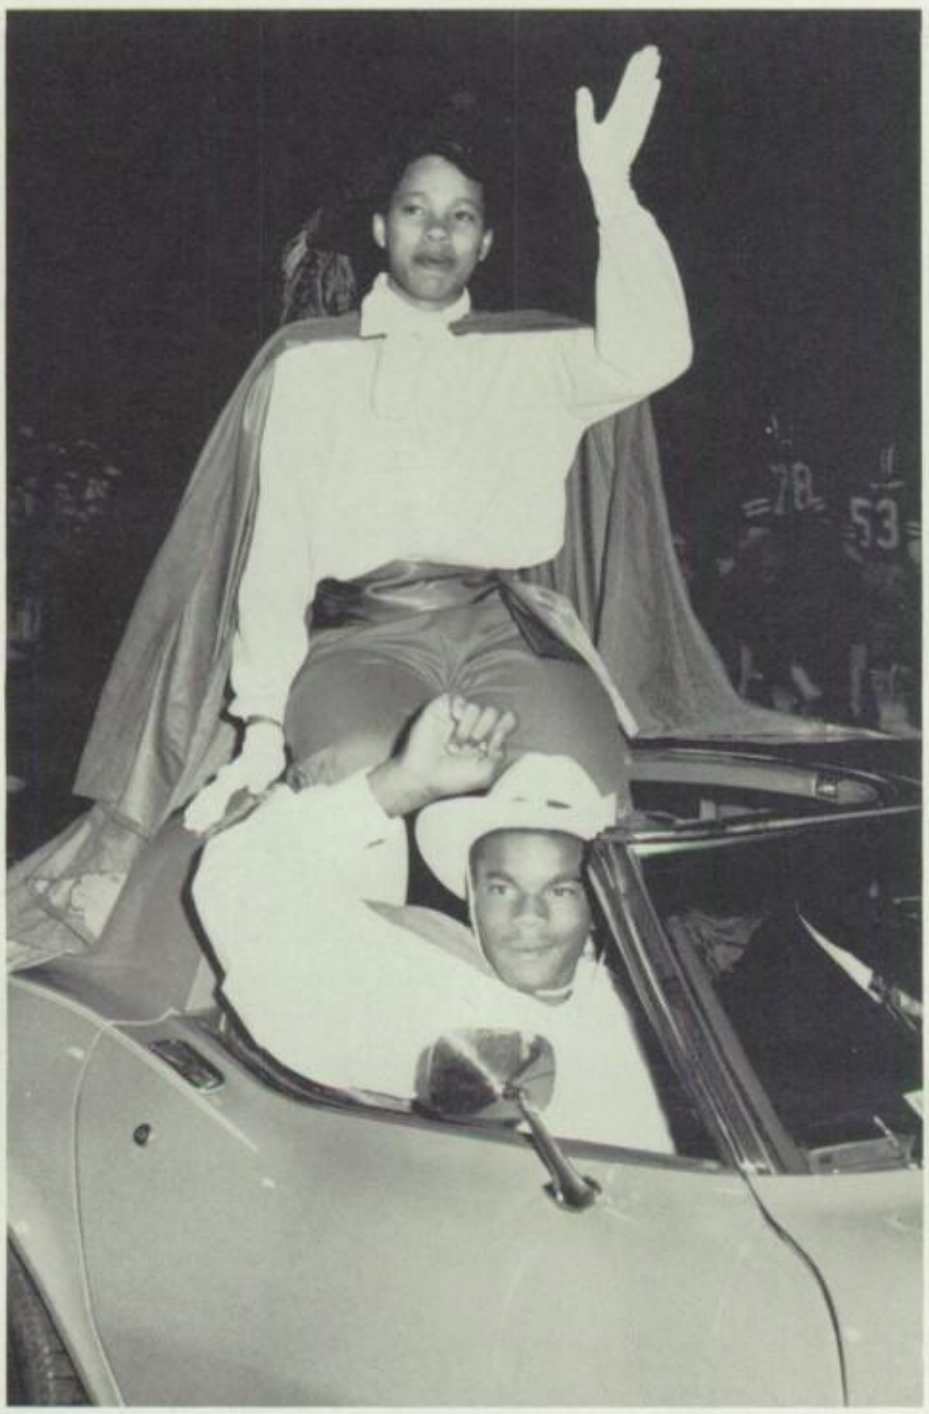
We've Got Spirit



Much spirit was prevalent throughout Spirit Week at Marshall-Walker. During Spirit Week the Cavaliers displayed their designer attire, and showed appreciation for the football players by displaying personal signs around the building. The Cavaliers continued their activities by mourning for the Trojans, dressing up for the Miss Cavalier Pageant and donning their BLUE, GREEN AND WHITE.

Cavalier Mascots, Millicent Harris and Wendell Smith wave zealously at the crowd.

Enthusiasm, Enthusiasm, Enthusiasm

The SCA Installation began in a most jubilant manner. The Reverend Bobby Oliver aroused the assembled audience by giving an enthusiastic opening. His theme was "Enthusiasm, Enthusiasm, Enthusiasm." He told the students that they could be anything they wanted to be if they tried to be. He pointed out that if you believe in yourself, you will succeed.

Linwood Alford sang "Amazing Grace," and Darryl Walker played a musical solo "Ribbon in the Sky."

SCA president, Yulanda Thompson, took charge of her office by expressing her outlook for the coming year.

Hands up! SCA officers Judy Harris, Renee Smith, Ninette Brinkley, Karen Williams and Cornelia Belshes received the oath of office during candlelight ceremony as a part of SCA installation. The installation was held in the Marshall building.

During the SCA Installation hearts were moved by Linwood Alford's rendition of "Amazing Grace."

SCA officers seriously consider words of guidance from Mr. Alvoston Taylor, Jr. who stressed responsibility and dedication in order to succeed.

Reverend Bobby Oliver, Dr. Iris Metts, and Ethel Hinnant listened attentively as President Yulanda Thompson gave her charge to the audience. She initiated help and support from the student body.

Mr. Alvoston Taylor, curriculum specialist in the Walker building, installed the SCA officers for the 1982-83 school year.

Closing remarks were made by Mr. Roger LaCourse, Marshall building principal, who encouraged students to take pride in their school.

We are the believers

The class of 1983 held its installation service on October 5, 1982, in the Marshall auditorium. The class of 373 seniors marched with dignity and pride to "Pomp and Circumstance" played by Mrs. Marie Shelton, choir directress. Our SCA president, Yulanda Thompson, extended greetings. The greetings were followed by a melodious and heart-warming rendition of "The Greatest Love of All" by the Marshall-Walker Concert Choir. The soloists featured were Linwood Alford, James Fenner, Leah Hines, and Donna Bradley.

The spiritual selection by the choir was succeeded by the installation message given by our coordinating principal, Dr. Iris T. Metts, who spoke zealously using as her theme, in keeping with our theme, "We, the Believers." Students listened attentively to Dr. Metts as she spoke concerning having reachable dreams and constructive goals. She explained that it's good to have dreams; for dreams may come true. Yet, it is not advantageous to have dreams that too far exceed one's grasp. She further stressed that one must believe in order to accomplish; for dreamers dream, but believers do. Following Dr. Metts' inspiring message, the stage band gave a dazzling performance by rendering a selection "Morning Dance" by Spiro Gyro.

The newly elected officers of the senior class were installed by our principal, Mr. Roger LaCourse. The oath of office was solemnly taken by each of the officers as the officers were sworn into their respective offices. The officers are Wanda Wilder, president; Myrna Richardson, vice president; Micheil Yarborough, secretary; Andrea Smith, treasurer; and Karen Pettis, chaplain.

President Wilder gave her charge to the class. Wanda opened with a congratulatory statement to the class in reaching their senior year. She continued by encouraging them to join efforts, work united, and most importantly, to believe in the capabilities of the members of the Class of '83. The meaning of the charge was summarized by emphasizing that with the spirit of "believers" and unity of cause, the first class of true Cavaliers could be nothing less than great.

President of the Senior Class, Wanda Wilder, gave the charge to the class. She encouraged the students to join efforts, work united, and most importantly to believe in the capabilities of the Class of '83.

Macheil Yarborough, Class Secretary, and SCA President, Yulanda Thompson, consider President Wilder's charge.

Senior Sponsors, Ms. Wendy Sprout and Mrs. Winifree Ferguson, smile proudly at the beginning of the program.

S.A.D. — SENIOR ADMINISTRATION DAY

With the help of Mrs. Anderson the Senior Administration Committee which included: Myrna Richardson — Chairman, Deborah Pérson — Co-Chairman, Chandra Taylor, Owen Wilson, Felicia Brown, Iris Mondrey, Brenda Moore, Bobby Gamble, Mary Cox and Andrea Coles decided to continue the Senior Administration Day tradition. These students worked very hard putting together a vacation day for the M-W teachers. The students who participated on this day had a chance to use the teachers' lounge, restrooms and cafeteria.

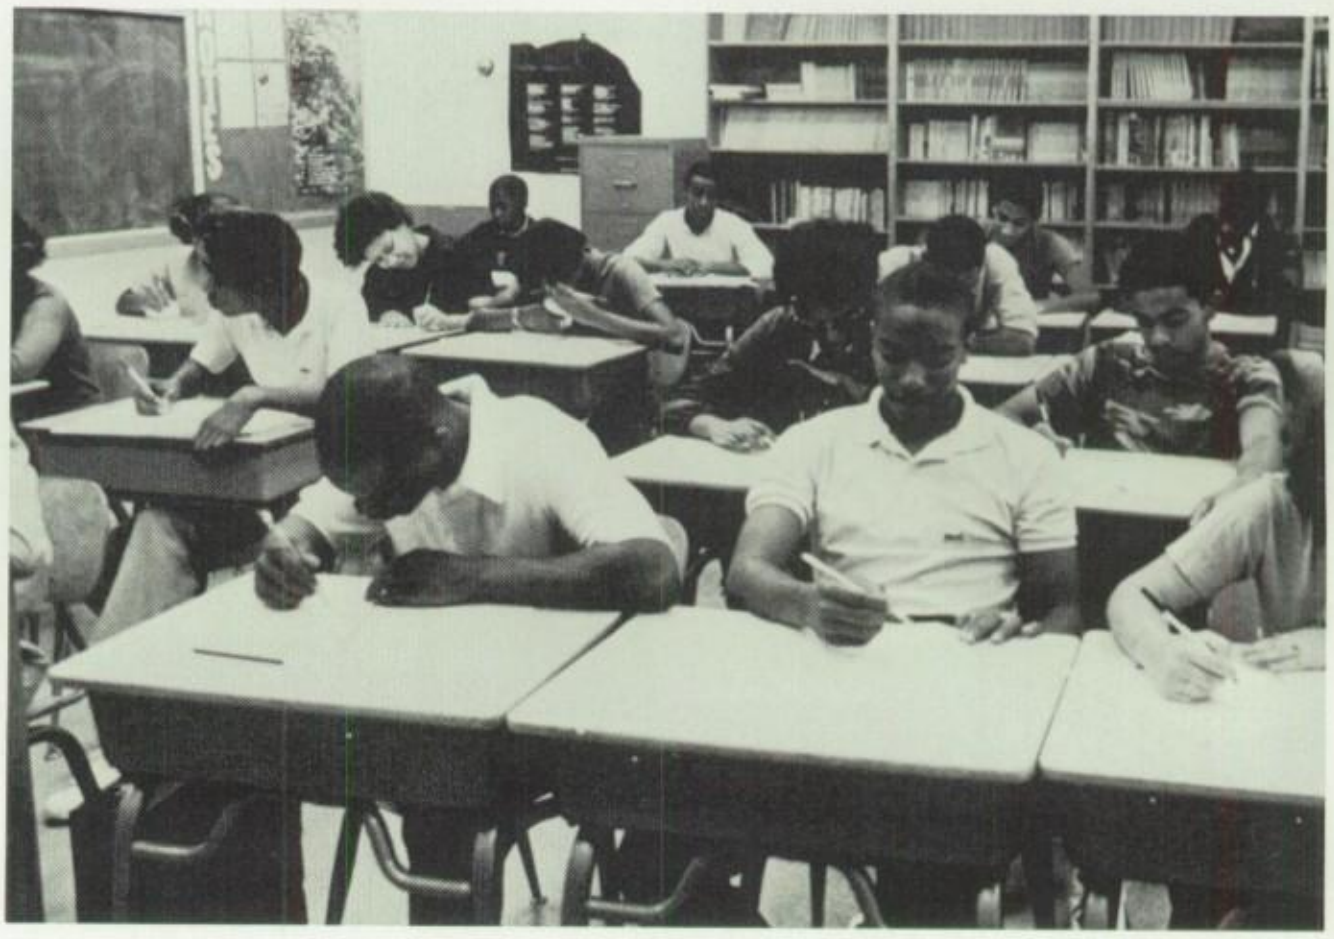
COMMUNICATIVE ARTS

The Communicative Arts Department of Marshall-Walker adheres to the philosophy and objectives of the school. The department strives to help each student to develop skills in the areas of reading, writing, speaking, and listening. The department places great emphasis upon the development of each communication skill.



Students in Mrs. Dandridge's class practice using vocabulary words in sentences.

The social studies program at Marshall-Walker is open to all students in grades nine through twelve. World History and Geography, Virginia and United States History, and U.S. Government and Economics are required courses at M-W. Elective classes include Twentieth Century World History, African Studies, Black History, and Sociology and Psychology.

Seniors work independently to complete assignments.

Below: Map study is important in Mr. Thompson's class.

IN THE SCIENCE WING

The Science Department at M-W offers a curriculum organized in accordance with the development of the student. The curriculum provides for his present and his projected future needs. Each student is encouraged to strive for maximum achievement according to his ability.

Mrs. Bolden prepares class for dissecting the earthworm.

Below: Students find dissecting the earthworm fun.

Courses in the Science Department include: earth science, biology, chemistry, and physics. Earth science and biology are generally required courses; chemistry and physics are taken so that students may further their education.

Rita Johnson and Eric Guy make use of the microscope.

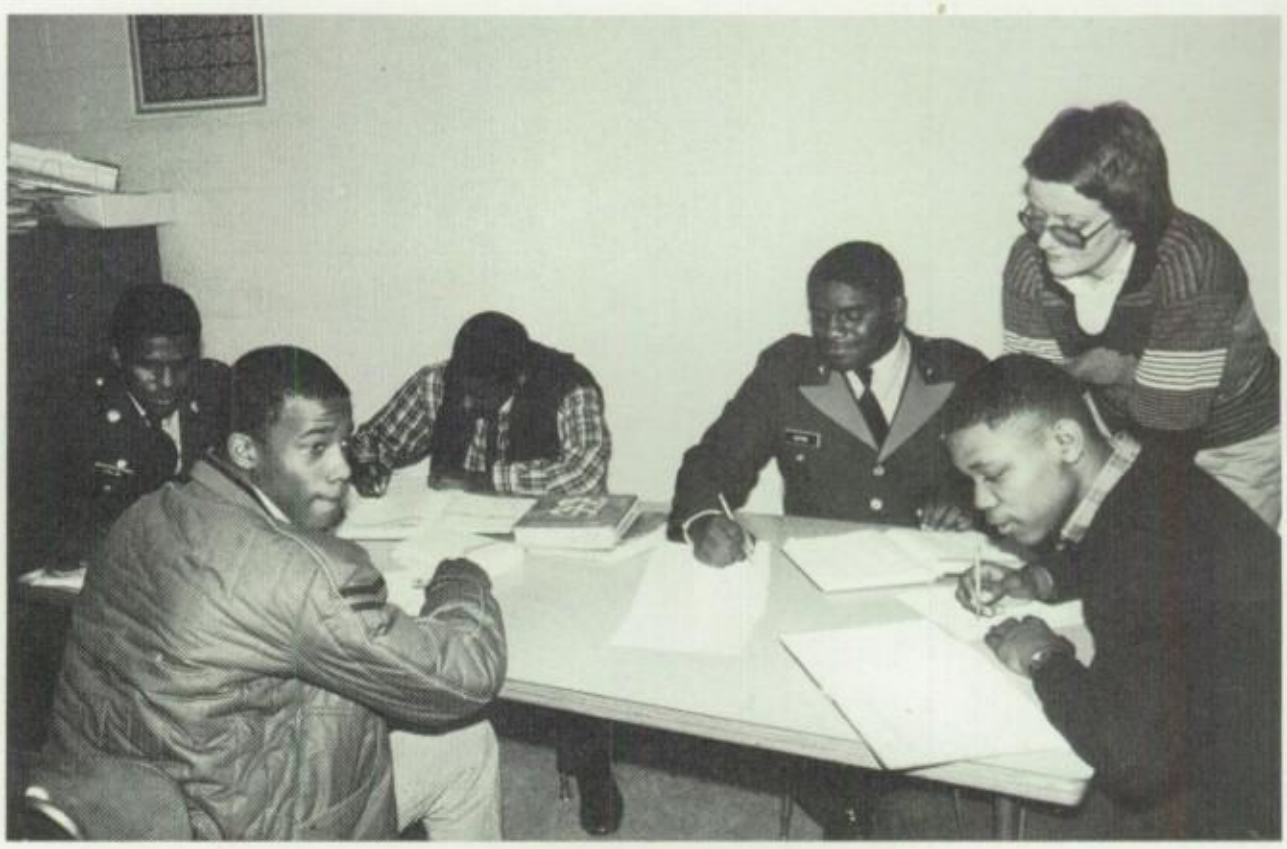
Below: Students in Ms. Tinsley's class study the solar system.

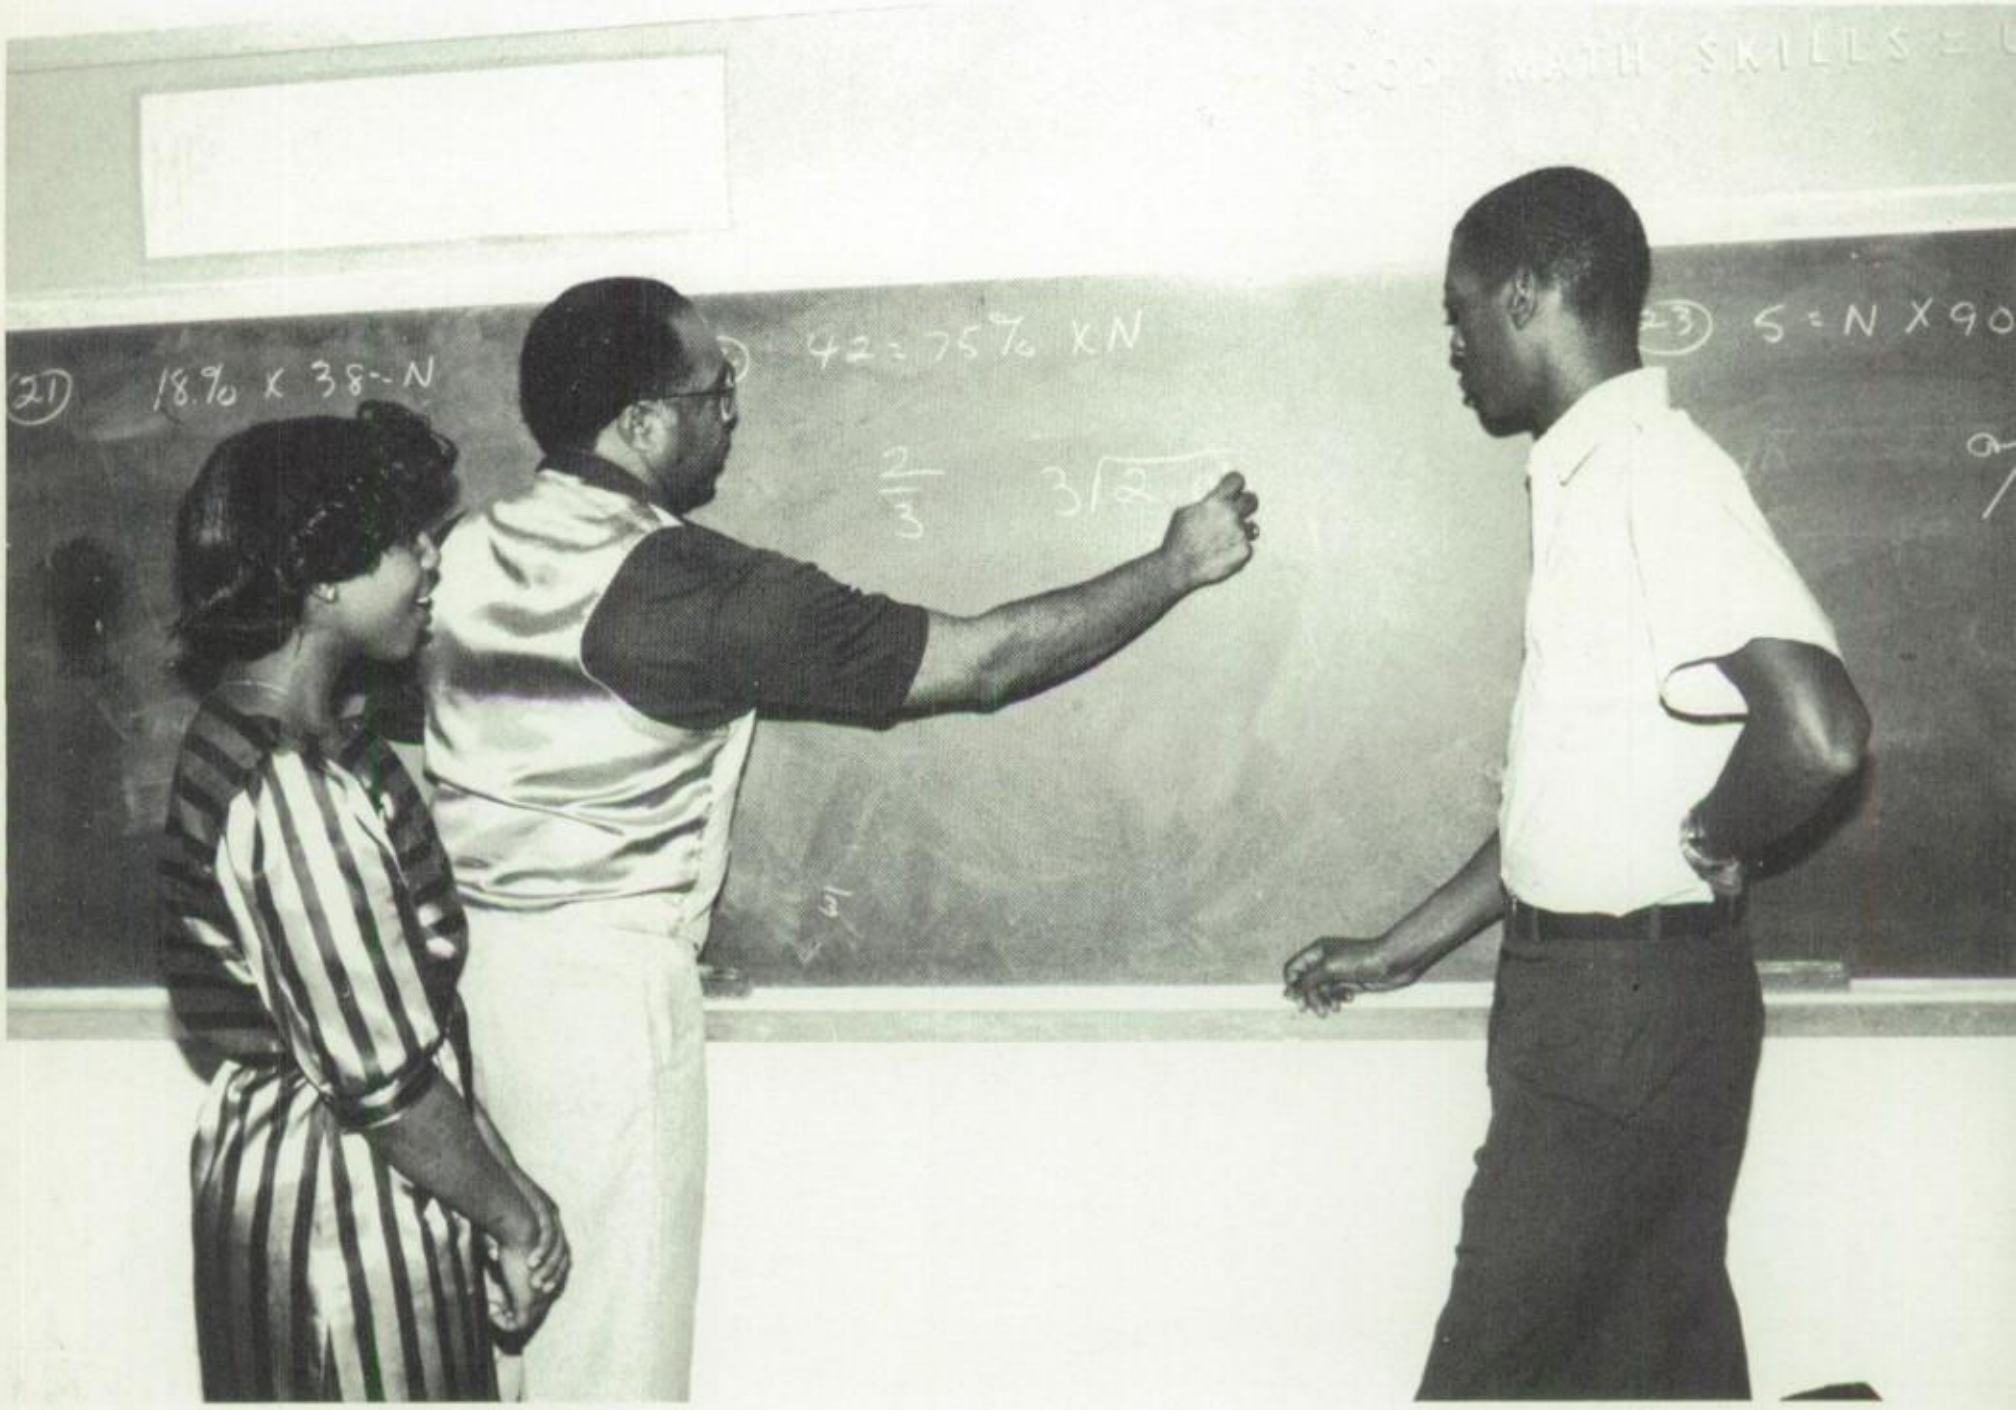
IN THE MATH WING

The Math Department offers a broad spectrum of courses for the students at Marshall-Walker. Mathematics is structured around three major themes: (1) the remediation of defeciencies, (2) building and strengthening of fundamental numerical skills, (3) the provision of opportunities for students to find full expression of their mathematical interests.

Mrs. Pickeral assists students with math problems.

Below: Mr. Davis explains math problems at the board.





Courses available in the Mathematics Department include: Fundamental Math, Algebra I and II, Geometry I, Calculus, Trigonometry. Elective classes include SAT Math and Computer Programming.

Mrs. Bishop explains geometry to Alice Thompson, Givonne Sherin and Anthony Pence.

READY FOR BUSINESS

Mrs. Norma Carter, Vocational Education Head, prepares for her teachers and students.

Below: Marchelle Jones finds her typing class enjoyable.

Mrs. Odessa Smith puts her desk in order before leaving.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

The Business Department at M-W offers courses to help develop business skills for students. Beginning typists struggle to develop the skills that advanced typists have mastered. Courses offered in the business department include: Typing, Accounting, Office Practice, Bookkeeping, Recordkeeping, Stenography, and Shorthand.

Senecca Hill finds typing a learning experience as well as an enjoyable one.

Below: Kenneth Stevenson leads a discussion in his business class.

Sandra Carter and Carolyn Freeman prepare a typing assignment.

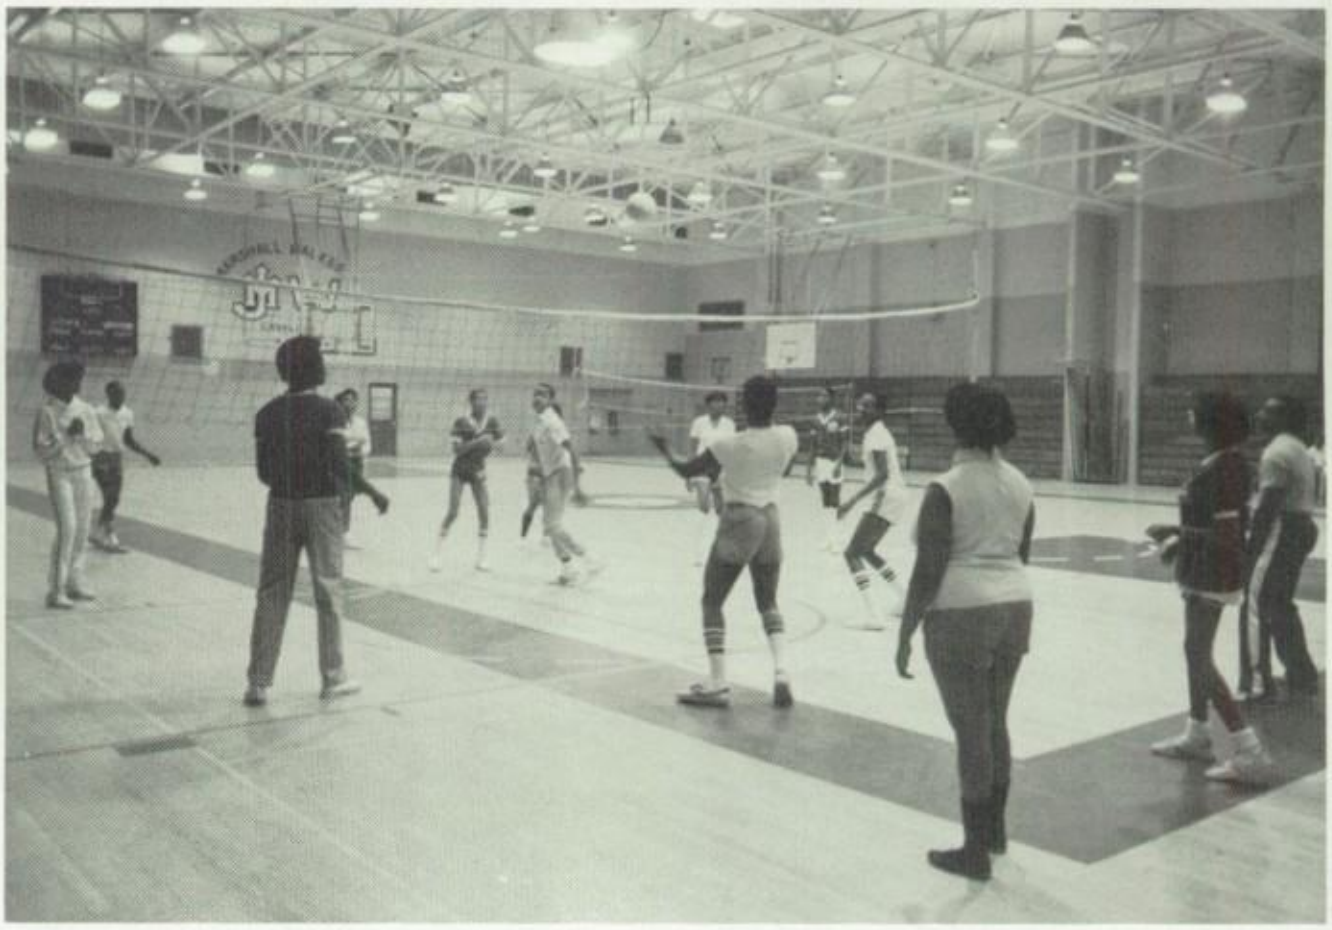
FUN IN PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Physical education is required of all ninth and tenth grade students and is offered as an elective for eleventh and twelfth grade students. Health and driver education requirements must be fulfilled during the ninth and tenth grades. The physical education program at M-W is now co-educational.



Students in Mr. Hopkins' class play a game of volleyball.

Reginald Anderson prepares for a backward flip.

McKinley Noble demonstrates the side straddle.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE, DRIVERS' EDUCATION

Spanish, French, Latin, and German are classes offered by the Foreign Language Department. Headed by Mrs. Lela Morris, the department strives for a better understanding and appreciation of foreign languages.

Driver's Education must be completed in the tenth grade before a student can acquire a driver's license prior to the age of 18. Mrs. Margaret Lawrence prepares students for simulation driving, while other physical education teachers instruct students on basics of learning to drive.

Ms. Lela Morris assists Eliza Stokes in French class.

Mrs. Margaret Lawrence gives instructions in driver's education class.

BAND, ART

The Marshall-Walker High School Marching Band, under the direction of Mr. Tuscan Jasper, has been one of the most spirited organizations at M-W. The band performs at many different functions during the year. The band also participated in the All-City Band Competition at the newly built Arthur Ashe Center.

The Art Department at Marshall-Walker strives to develop talent in students who have shown interest in art. So much of the talent that comes into an art class is undeveloped, and therefore, it is a huge task for Mrs. Ann Miller and the art department to deal with.

Mr. Tuscan Jasper directs and instructs the marching band.

M-W CAVALIERS ORGANIZATIONS

Key Club members smile brightly as Karen Pettis, president, and Mr. Michael Brooks, sponsor, hold the Merit Award presented to them by the Richmond Metropolitan Blood Service. This award was presented to the Key Club for increasing donorship by 60% over last year's donation.

The Key Club also sponsored a Thanksgiving program and donated baskets to needy families and institutions. The Club sponsored two blood drives, one in October and another in March.

They took time out for a little enjoyment and had pizza at Chuck E. Cheese's.

A portion of the Marshall-Walker Marching Band practices under the direction of Mr. Tuscan Jasper. The band participated in a Christmas parade plan to participate in a musical competition at Henrico High School.

NEW NAME FOR NEWSPAPER

The Complex-Gazette of Marshall-Walker High School, which has been the student newspaper for the last two years, has undergone a name change. The new name of the newspaper is The Messenger of Marshall-Walker High School. Responding to a change in the status of the two buildings, the staff felt that in as much as the high school buildings are no longer called Complex, this term should likewise be deleted from the paper's name.

In addition to the name change, some new features have been included. These features represent suggestions from staff members who attended the Fall Publications Workshop, sponsored by the Virginia High School League.

Staff members work diligently to meet their deadline.

Reviewing previous editions of the paper help staff members decide on format.

Tommy Hayes and Greg Grooms give Colita Nichols moral support as she types an article.

There is more than one way to evaluate a student's understanding of acquired skills.

Wanda Leonard, a 1981 graduate of Marshall-Walker and a former member of the yearbook staff, is now a Hokie at Virginia Tech. However, Wanda is now home on leave from school to return the fall of '83. Stopping by for a visit one evening in September, Wanda observed the staff at work. She said, "Hey, gang, do you need any help?"

In unison the staff replied, "Yes! Yes! Yes!"

Wanda has been with us since that day. Our Cavalier hats are off to Wanda. Thanks a million!

ROMANCE OF SPRING

DECA is doing it again! DECA IS PUTTING TOGETHER A FASHION SHOW TO BE REMEMBERED! Every year the fashion classes at Marshall-Walker participate in the planning and implementation of a fashion show which the students look forward to annually. This fashion show is designed to be a special project for the students in 12 Fashion. The students take over completely. They put together skits, arrange scenes, apply makeup and whatever else is necessary to make the show a successful one.

FASHION EXTRAVAGANZA

In order to obtain models there is a try-out. All students who are enrolled in fashion can try out. When students try out, they are not expected to know how to model, but they are graded on their potential to become a good model. After the try-outs the students remain after school for practice to develop the techniques necessary in developing and staging a fashion show.

Karen Pettis and Millicent Harris take the business of fashion seriously.

Jessie Hamlin, Andrea Smith and LaTonya Holloway are "Dream Girls" in action.

Cavaliers Dedicate 1982 Grid Season

ROBERT SMITH

Between the dark and the daylight.
When the night is beginning to lower,

Comes a pause in the day's occupations,
That is known as the children's hours.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

The Cavalier family has lost one of its children – Robert Leroy (Chub) Smith, Jr. T know Chub was to love him. He always had a kind word and a smile for everyone As an athlete he defied all the conventional rules of athletics, proving that physica size does not spell man. In watching him perform on the football field, basketba court or the baseball diamond, you knew that Chub Smith was something special.

As a football player he turned out to be the unexpected "Clutchman." For example, as a junior playing in the last Armstrong Walker classic, Chub broke the game open running a 25 trap for a 43 yard tourchdown. In his senior year playing against Dinwiddi in a district game that determined regional placement, Chub returned two punts for 55 and 65 yards to lead the Cavaliers to a lop sided victory. He was chosen unanimously to the All Central District Team in his senior year (1980).

As the month of December approached each year, Chub put away his cleats and donned his Converse sneakers to become the point guard for the basketball team. In his junior year, he led the team in assists with 167 and to the finals of the regional basketbal tournament. The following year as a senior and the sixth man on the team, Chub would be called upon to deliver that needed vic tory. He was the team's unsung hero.

Once basketball season ended, he would change into another show for baseball. Being five feet, six inches he was not the size o the usual shortstop, yet again his performance showed that size does not make the man. As a junior, he helped carry the baseba team to the regional playoffs and performed with his usual high standards as a senior. Regardless of the sport of the situation, each of his teammates looked to Chub for encouragement when the game seemed lost. But in every sense of the word, Chub was a "winner."

We will all miss Chub, but we have happy memories of him. In the words of Leonardo Da Vinci,

"As a well-spent day brings happy sleep,
So a life well-used brings a happy
death."

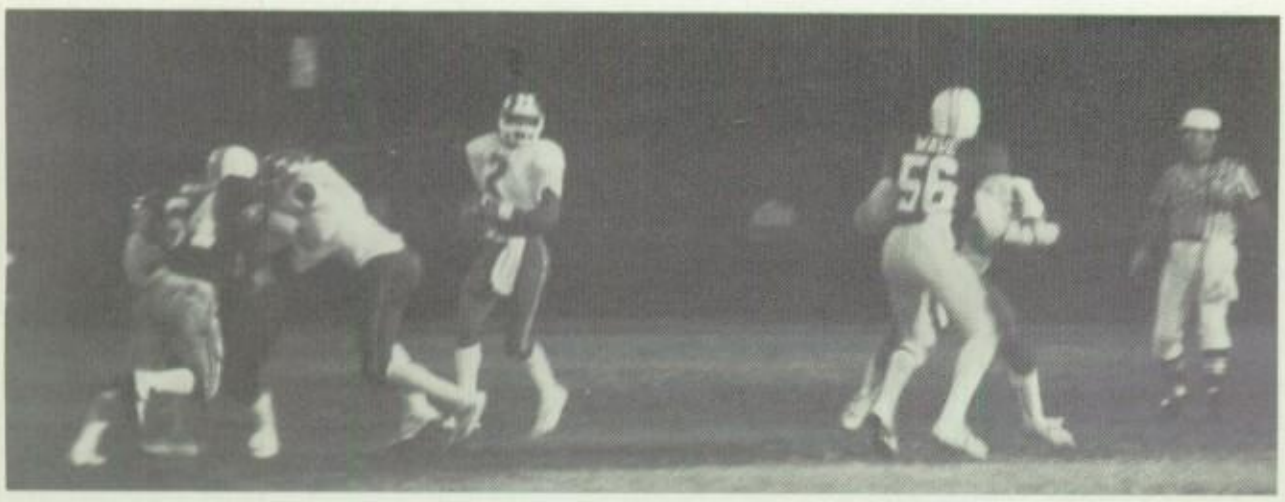
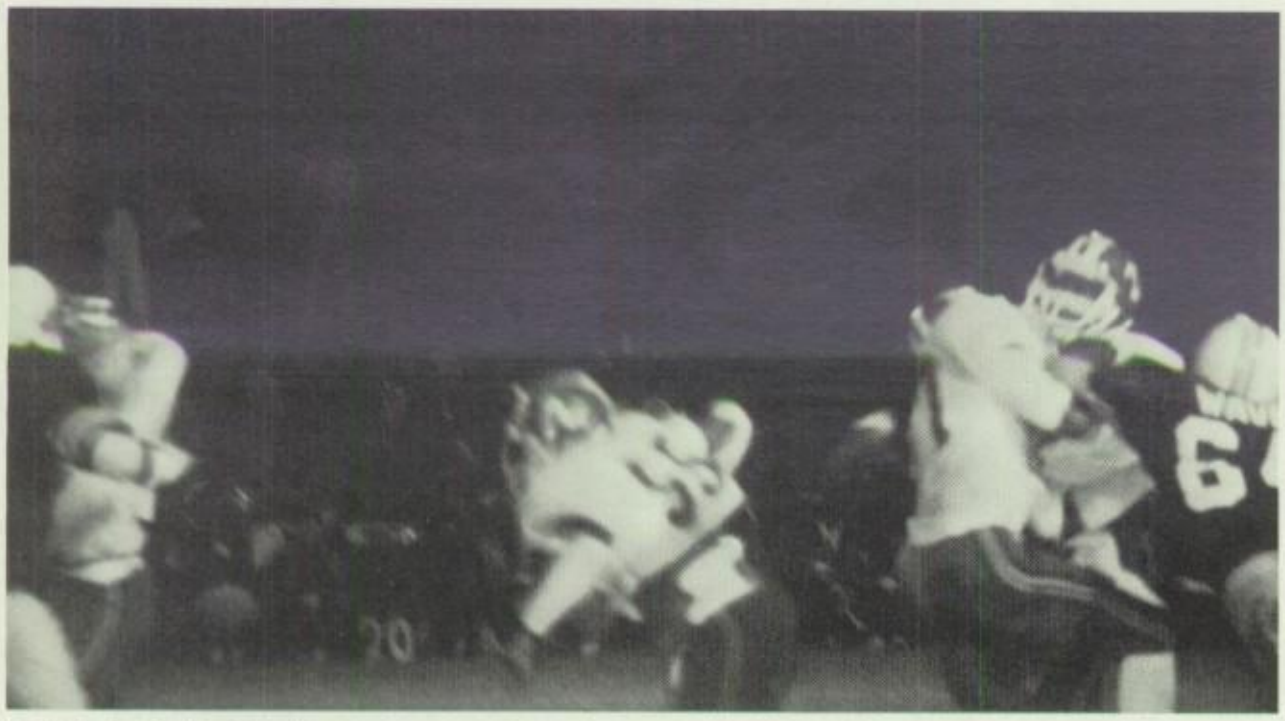
2 PLUS 89 EQUALS 6 FOR CAVALIERS

Here's how it started.



Grooms has all night.



He puts the ball in the air . . .
To #89 Clark equals 6 . . . points.

No it's not magic
No, it's not new math
No, it's not a typing error
Yes, it's Grooms to Clark
AND THAT EQUALS SIX – POINTS

You can remember if you know football:

Unitas to Berry
Lucas to Farmer
Bradshaw to Swann
Meredith to Hayes
Revels to Page
Fouts to Enslow
Staubach to Pearson
Revels to Gunn
White to B. Johnson

Well, add to your list the 1982 duo of Grooms to Clark. The two All-Region players played havoc to many defensive backs all year. Grooms completed 85 passes his senior year with 39 of them falling in the hands of first-year senior player Robert Clark. Head coach, Lou Anderson, a one-time outstanding high school and college receiver, coached the CAVS' receiver this season with the motto, "ANYTHING I CAN TOUCH, I CAN CATCH," while Coach Murray Wood coached the QB's and Backs. With this outstanding coaching, the Grooms to Clark combo was born. Coach Anderson named this play "The California Special." The rest is now history. Oh! By the way Coach Anderson is a history teacher.

SEE! THERE'S NO
MAGIC TO IT!

DOING WHAT WE DO NATURALLY

The theme for the 1981-82 basketball Cavaliers was "Doing What We Do Best." The theme for the 1982-83 basketball Cavaliers is "Doin What We Do Naturally." Naturally for the Cavaliers means without pretending, without affectation, but with sincerity, with seriousness. Sincerity perhaps is the keyword. The Cavaliers are sincere and serious about the game called basketball.

Being the Central District champs for the fourth consecutive year attests to the fact that the Cavaliers do what they naturally, sincerely, seriously. The Cavaliers defeated Petersburg 65-51. Willie Jennings was voted most valuable player of the district tournament. Antonio Henley and Joel Bledsoe were selected to the all-tournament team.

M-W CAPTURES HIGH SCHOOL POLL TITLE

Marshall-Walker captured both the regular-season and tournament titles in the Central District and also took the top spot in the final Times-Dispatch Area Scholastic Top 10 Poll. The Cavaliers replaced JHW the defending poll champion which slipped to No. 2. The Cavaliers, the defending state Group AAA champions, were awarded six first-place votes from the panel of 12 area coaches after trampling Hopewell and Petersburg to claim the district tournament crown.

M-W REGIONAL CHAMPS

The Cavaliers' 68-48 victory over Petersburg was our fourth consecutive regional title. We would really like to consider the regional title a tradition.

Last year we traveled to the State with Ronnie Wade, Bubba Johnson, and John Stevens as starters. This year we have Antonio Henley, Eric Thompson, Joel Bledsoe, plus Willie Jennings.

#12 Joel Bledsoe signals No. 1 following the Cavaliers' victory over Petersburg as Eric Thompson applauds.

The key to the Cavaliers' success is outstanding teamwork and excellent coaching. The team works as a unit, not as individuals. Coaches Callaham and Threatts coach as a unit, not as individuals. They are both excellent coaches. They have proved it in the past.

Right: # 11 Mike Harrison cuts down a strand of the net.

Coaches Pierce Callaham and Frank Frank Threatts went into the season to be jolly. However, the season turned out to be anything but jolly. With a team record of 3 wins and 3 losses (The losses totaled 12 points.) the coaches knew that if Santa was to fill their stockings it would have to be with victories.

During his coaching career, Callaham has coached such celebrated stars as Kenny Merritt, David Franklin, and Richard Jones – State Champions in 1972. Clyde Austin, Rudy Cunningham, J. D. Harrison and Alfred Cook, Jr. – State Champions in 1976. We can't forget his first Cavalier State Title with Bubba Johnson, John "Cooley" Stevenson, Ronald Dark and Ronnie Wade in 1982. But, the word was out now that he has no stars. Where is he to go from here? Well, Santa gave Coach Cal his Christmas wish with 15 wins in his last 17 games, the last eight wins coming without a loss.

Coach Callaham, Coach Threatts and Jesse Dark, former New York Knick, knew that they had to have consistent play from 6'8" Willie Jennings, and anything they could get from 6'6" Antonio Henley. Jennings played with his usual flair, but Henley came forth and carried the CAVS to the 1983 STATE CHAMPIONSHIP.

With the Starless CAVS heading into the Regionals, JHW was the team to beat. But, someone forgot to tell the CAVALIERS. Henley made A-K and Petersburg both self-destruct in a mission that he made possible. After the CAVS had captured their fourth Regional Crown in as many years, they packed their bags and headed west, 64 that is.

STARLESS CAVALIERS WIN SECOND CONSECUTIVE STATE CROWN

Joel Bledsoe # 12 waits for his jumper to fall. It did.

Wallace Brown shoots jumper. It also fell through the net.

Willie Jennings takes a bow after two nights of very hard work.

Entering the State Tournament seeded fourth, Henley continued his mission on James Wood High School with 22 points, 6 rebounds and 5 block shots, while All-Metro Willie Jennings . had 20 points, 11 rebounds and 7 block shots and a bone-shaking backwards dunk to close the show. Joel Bledsoe fired in 8 long range jumpers (via John Stevens) to finish with 16 points. However, points don't always tell the story because Eric Thompson scored only 8 points but orchestrated the floor show with 15 assists. CAVS 78 James Wood 62

In the finals Coach Callaham was to put his Cavaliers up against Coach Mike Hynson's T.C. Williams' TITANS. Last year the CAVS defeated T.C. Williams in the semi-finals of the State Tournament. The game was played like a true Championship Game, nip and tuck.

But who decided to take over the show? That's right! Antonio Henley scored 28 points, 16 rebounds and 6 block shots. With time out Coach Callaham explained to his troops that they were behind 64-65 with only five seconds remaining, and that they would overload to one side with four players and throw an across-the-court weak side pass to the lone Cavalier Aldrey Williams. But as fate would have it, the ball landed in the hands of – you guessed it – Antonio Henley, who capped a brilliant tournament with an 18 foot jumper that felled T.C. Williams 66-65, and propelled the CAVS to their second straight STATE GROUP AAA title.

STATE CHAMPIONSHIP REMAINS

The Cavaliers won their second State Championship in as many years. However, this time there was no Ronnie Wade, no John Stevens, no Ronald Dark and no Bubba Johnson.

Instead dominating the courts were Willie Jennings, Wallace Brown, Antonio Henley, Eric Thompson, and Joel Bledsoe.

Next year Wallace Brown will be the only returning starter, but our minds are still directed toward 64 WEST.

CAVALIERS
FACULTY

Mrs. Fecelia Starkes, geometry teacher in the Marshall building, supervises tutorial sessions in geometry each Monday evening from 6:30 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. These sessions are held in the Marshall building in Room 109, and students who have been experiencing difficulty in this subject area has been encouraged to attend.

Mrs. Starkes began these sessions because she wanted her students to pass. Also, according to her, "Students should be enjoying geometry."

Indications are that those who have been attending these sessions have indeed improved their skills in geometry.

CAVALIER FAMILY WELCOMES NEW ADMINISTRATORS

Dr. Iris T. Metts, coordinating principal, anticipates a busy day.

Right: Mr. LaCourse, Marshall building principal, prepares for a conference.

Along with the start of a new school year came some recognizable changes. Among the changes: renovation in the Marshall building, a new name for the school newspaper, and new faculty members. One change noticed by students was the arrival of two new administrators.

Mr. John Lane is principal in the Walker building, and Mr. Bradford J. Fellows is assistant principal in the Walker building. Mr. Fellows and Mr. Lane quickly got into the swing of things. Together working with the students, faculty, and other administrators Mr. Fellows and Mr. Lane should fit right in with the rest of the Cavalier family.

COACH THREATTS' HANDS WORK MAGIC

Lights, camera . . . Although this classroom scene is not a familiar one to most people outside the M – W family, Coach Frank Threatts is busy in the classroom teaching World History and Geography when he's not coaching basketball. Here Coach Threatts has his class ready and willing to see a film about charts, graphs, and land maps.

Notice the hand movement here? It's nothing compared to the hand movements when he's handling the cue cards during a basketball game. This action should not be missed by anyone.

LIBRARIANS ARE NEW TO MARSHALL BUILDING

The 1982-83 school year at M-W favors us with two new librarians. The librarians new to the Marshall building are Mrs. Sherrill Samuels and Mrs. Evelyn Hawkins. Both young ladies are alumnae of Virginia State College, now Virginia State University, with bachelor and master's degrees in library science and media education respectively.

Mrs. Samuels has previously worked at Virginia State University in the Johnston Memorial Library and at the Walker building at Marshall-Walker. Mrs. Hawkins has worked at MacMillan Jr. High in Omaha, Nebraska, Whitcomb Court Elementary and the Jefferson building at Jefferson, Huguenot, Wythe. Mrs. Samuels' interests are interior decorating, fashions and reading, while Mrs. Hawkins likes plants, collecting antiques and reading.

When asked their opinion of the Cavalier students, Mrs. Hawkins replied, "The students are well-behaved." Mrs. Samuels replied, "Super!" When several students were asked their opinion of the librarians, their reply, "Well, all right!"

CAVALIERS
CLASSES

Photography anybody? Conrad Ruffin, Janet Watson, and Tracey Jones are students in Mr. Abdel-Alim's photography class. These students are very serious about the business of taking pictures. They were most cooperative with the LaPlume staff. They not only took pictures, but under the instruction of Mr. Alim, they prepared negatives and made prints. The staff is expecting great things from this trio next year.

SENIORS

The Class of 1983

TRUE CAVALIERS

The members of the Senior Class of 1983 are true Cavaliers. We started our freshman year as Cavaliers and we are now completing our senior year as Cavaliers. With the merging of Maggie L. Walker High School and John Marshall High School under "Plan G" the Cavalier family began. The members of the Class of 1983 were freshmen then. We were never Green Dragons nor John Marshall Justices, but we have always been Cavaliers. We, the members of the Class of 1983, feel that we are the first true Cavalier graduates. We feel that to be proud is to be a part of the blue, green and white – to wear it, to feel it, to praise it. We cherish the blue, green and white tradition. We support the blue, green and white activities, sports, faculty, administration and community. The Cavalier Spirit is very much alive in our hearts, in our deeds and in our minds. We believe in ourselves and in our school. We have taken advantage of all that Marshall-Walker has to offer now and look forward to facing the future with great expectations. Our goal is to keep the Cavalier name respected throughout the state and the nation, so that we may continue to say with certainty, "Marshall-Walker is the place to be."

STUDENTS STAND OUT

The members of the Class of '83 decided to follow tradition and again select those students, whom they felt, stood above the crowd. They decided to include the following categories: most friendliest, most talkative, most spirited, neatest, most cooperative, most athletic, most attractive, class couple, class flirts, class leaders, most talented, most likely to succeed, quietest, most popular, class shortest and tallest.

Voting was done in senior homerooms, tallied. Students were notified through letters and the student body was informed over the P.A.

Quietest – Clarence Patterson, Gaynelle Lipscomb, Raymond Henderson

Most Popular – Emily Fisher and Maurice Thornton

Shortest – Rodney Hunter and Trina Johnson

Tallest – Angela Thorpe and Willie Jennings

READY TO MOVE

Junior class officers Kim Eddleton, vice-president; Colita Nichols, treasurer; Suzanne Thornton, president; and Kimberly Samuels, secretary were ready to move. These ambitious young ladies assumed the responsibility of leading their class. Their goal was to make the junior class the best class ever. Under the leadership of Mrs. Darlene Smith and Mr. Wayne Ellis their goal became a reality.

ARTIST IN RESIDENCE

Artist in residence? Frank "Poo" Lester considers art a way of expression. Frank has taught art classes at Ginter Park and Henderson Alternative School. Frank is a dedicated artist and a hard worker. His work has appeared in the Thalhimer's Art Show and Frank has received honorable mention, certificates, and cash awards. Frank's plans include working as a commercial artist or cartoonist.

BOY OF THE YEAR

If by chance one should visit the Boys' Club in the westend of Richmond, he would more than likely find Easy Edward Barlow who is captain of the swimming team and platoon leader in the JROTC at Marshall-Walker, as well as a member of the youth choir at his church.

What makes Edward tick? He says, "A general concern for developing that which is good in young people is important to me."

This year Edward was chosen Boy of the Year by the National Steering Committee of Keystone Members. This past summer he travelled to Anaheim, Palm Springs, Los Angeles and San Francisco, California, to attend National Keystone Conferences.

Edward was also named counselor for the summer and he served as a member on the committee for the International Festival for the Boys' Clubs of America.

MUSIC OR READING

Joyce Rogers is "geared up" for reading. Joyce has donned her head phones and listens to music as she prepares for a research paper in the library. Which do you feel is Joyce's first priority at this time? To find the answer, notice where her glasses are.

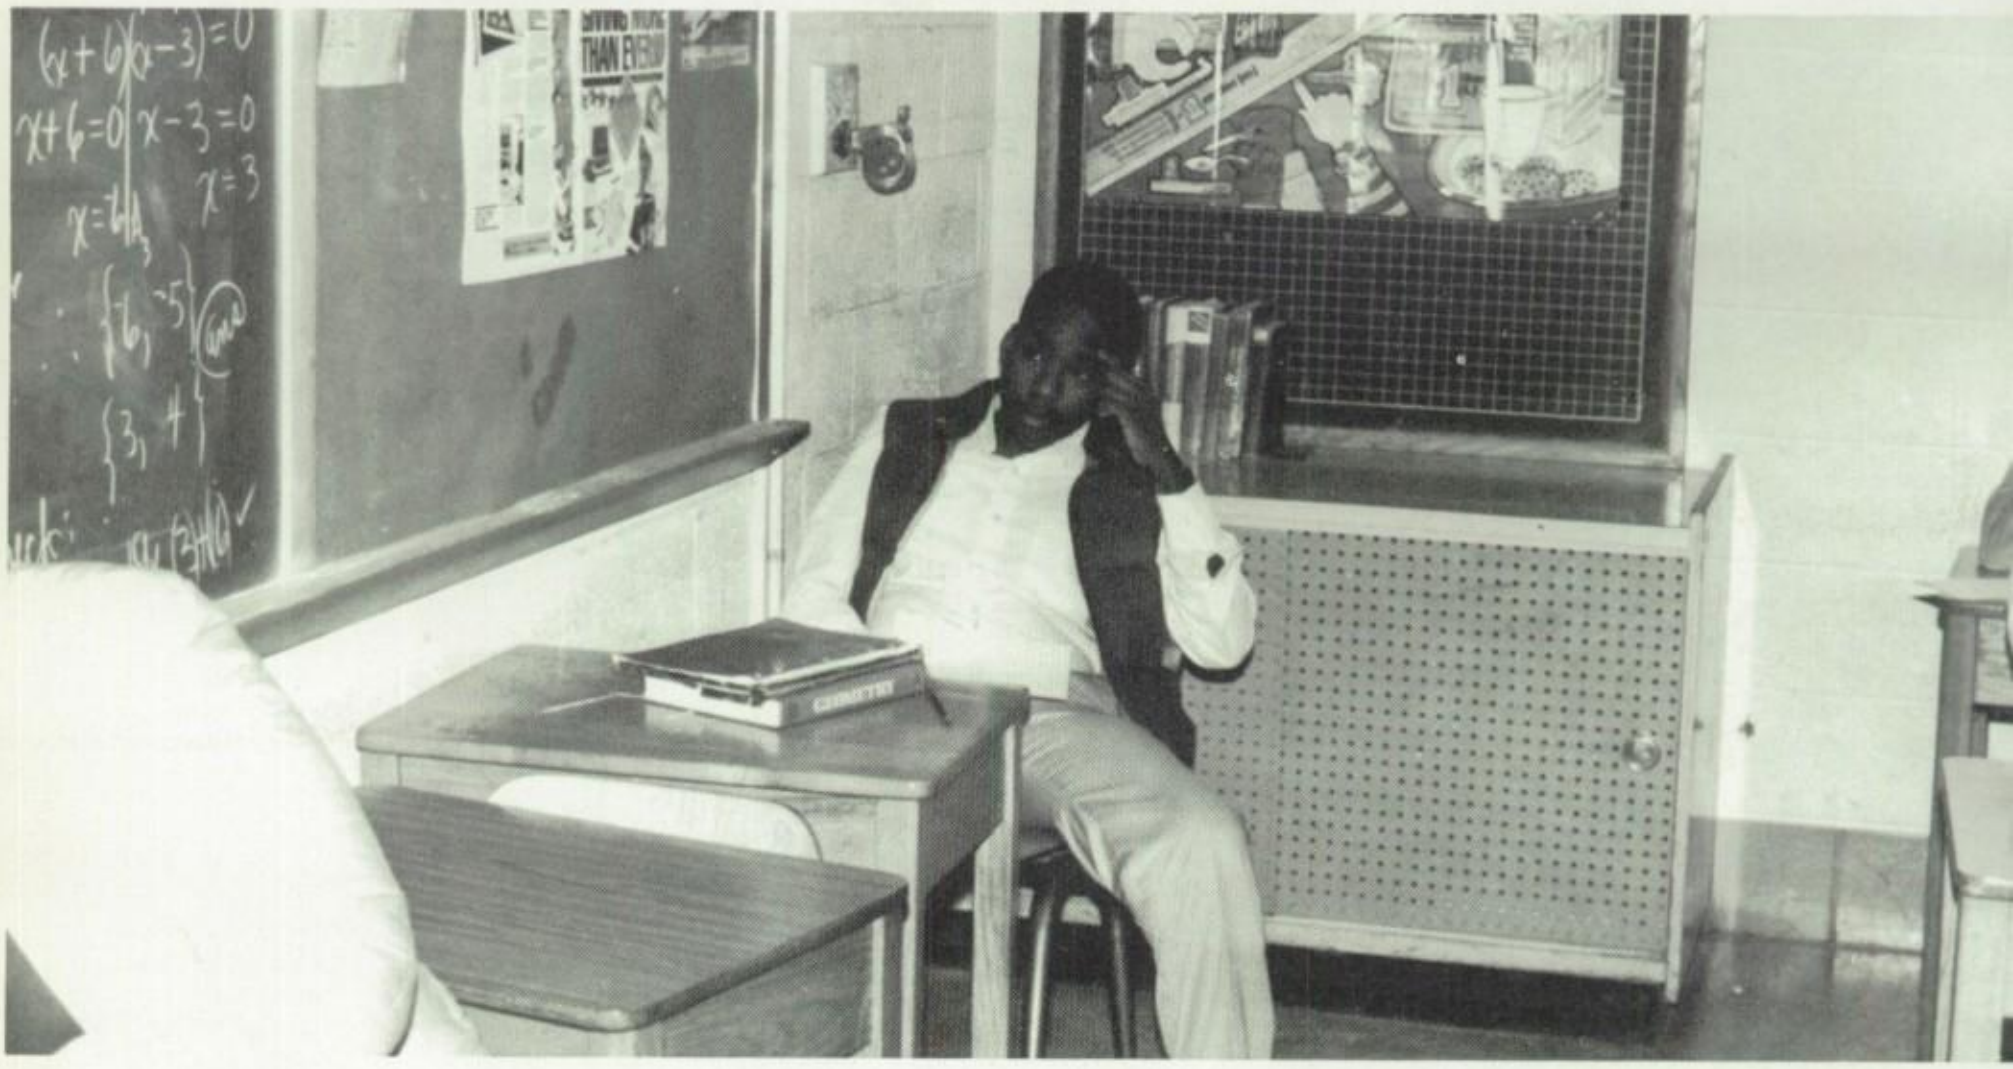
SOPHOMORES



Vernon Pack finds algebra a thought provoking subject.

English is fun in Mrs. Lillian Carter's class.

Left: Mrs. Hopkins and Annette Fortson write passes for tardy students

Students find earth science interesting in the morning.

VIVACIOUS FRESHMEN

READY TO LEARN

The 1986 graduating class of the Marshall-Walker High School entered the buildings with much zeal and enthusiasm. This class seemed to have been ready for whatever the school had to offer. With the dynamic formula of study and determination, the members of the Class of '86 must surely come out on the winning end.

LINE UP FOR LUNCH

Freshmen find the cafeteria procedure from the little different from the routine in middle school. In the latter, students had to eat with their respective teachers; however, as freshmen in high school students were allowed to eat in their own cafeterias without the presence of their instructors. Well, all right!

The 1983 LaPlume was printed in offset lithography by Taylor Publishing Company in Valley Forge, Pennsylvania. Trim size is 8½ x 11; type style is Gothic Serif Bold -- with headlines 30 point; body copy and scoreboards 10 points; captions 8 points. Paper is #80 enamel. All senior section is in 4-color process.

The cover of the LaPlume is embossed with silver metalay. Names on cover are in silver mylar. The cover protrays the theme of the book – "WE'VE GOT THE SPIRIT." This theme expresses the feelings and attitudes of the MARSHALL-WALKER CAVALIERS!

Special thanks from the LaPlume staff to Mrs. Lillian Carter and the newspaper staff for help with copy and alphabetizing, to Ms. Tribett for help with copy and layout, to Mr. Wilson Moore and Prestige Studio, Mr. George Boyd, Mr. Maurice Bishop, and Mr. Abdel-Alim for their assistance with photography, to the Richmond Newspapers for the use of photos, to Mr. Roger LaCourse for his support and encouragement, and to Ms. Linda Nash for her help with everything. Special thanks to Mr. Danny DeFalco for helping us to meet our deadlines.

CAVALIERS GOT THE SPIRIT!

"Cavaliers got the spirit!" This theme expressed the feelings of the Cavalier family throughout the school year. Classes, activities, tests and pep rallies were all attacked with spirit. The prom, homecoming, forensics, Battle of the Brains, the Miss Cavalier Pageant, all were attacked with spirit. New staff members were welcomed with spirit. Old staff members were welcomed back with spirit.

The basketball team won the regional title for the fourth consecutive year and the state title for the second consecutive year. Students took the SRA test with zeal. Standardized test scores improved including semester exams and senior competency tests.

Forrest White, Timothy Lamb and Kirk Keyes were bestowed the honor of Eagle Scouts.

Above: Ms. Williams returns to the Cavalier family after a leave of absence.

Below: Mr. Daniel Boylin, architect, speaks with Mrs. Eggleston's class.

Mrs. Statton, counselor, works with sophomores during Career Education Week.

Ms. Lillie Culley finds her new assignment in the library enjoyable.

Kirk Keyes, Eagle Scout stands proudly displaying his merit badges.

Sections of the school's physical plant were renovated. Provisions for the handicapped were made in the restrooms. An elevator was installed as well as short cold water fountains. Windows were lowered for energy conservation. The auditorium was completely renovated. The inside of the building was painted. The students welcomed these changes with spirit.

Marshall-Walker received the second place merit award. The Cavaliers were very pleased.

School is out at last. And I'm so glad I passed!

If you've edged up to a higher income tax bracket or need additional tax relief, consider VALIC'S fixed Tax Shelter Program.

Here are the things you can count on with VALIC:

1. Favorable Tax Treatment — Federal and State taxes are not paid while funds are accumulating, which allows Principal to earn interest, Interest to earn interest, and Monies otherwise lost to taxes to earn interest.
2. High Rate of Return — High interest on fixed account.
3. Guaranteed Principal — Assets are 100% guaranteed in the fixed account.
4. Liquidity — Money is available at all times.
5. Service — Full-time representatives specializing in tax deferred programs.

Investigate the possible tax advantages through Valic!

Compliments of a friend.

Relationships don't just happen. They have to be built.

Day by day.

Promises have to be kept. Expectations lived up to.

Understandings reached.

And then they have to withstand the test of time.

Can you count on the same things today that you counted on yesterday? Will you be able to count on them again tomorrow?

If the answer is yes, you're on your way to establishing a lifetime relationship.

With a bank. Or with a friend.

First & Merchants National Bank.
